

CREATIVE OUTLIER AIR SPORTS V2

Creative Outlier Air Sports V2 True Wireless Sweatproof In-Ears

Continuing the heritage of the Outlier Air sports, the new Creative Outlier Air Sports V2 now comes upgraded with intuitive touch controls and Qualcomm® cVc™ 8.0 technology for improved call quality for the ultimate wire-free listening experience.

Boasting a total playtime of up to 34 hours, a 5.6 mm superior graphene driver diaphragm, and Bluetooth® 5.0 with aptX™ and AAC audio codecs, you can enjoy immersive audio all day long. It is also certified IPX5 water-resistant with a comfortable all-day fit that's perfect for any urbanites with an active lifestyle!

UPGRADED WITH INTUITIVE TOUCH CONTROLS | Enjoy effortless control over your music and calls simply by tapping these in-ear wireless earbuds without reaching out to your phone. The Outlier Air Sports V2 now comes with touch controls that react to your commands, instead of a button press; simply tap on the earbuds to pause, change tracks, or even answer a call. In addition, we've provided different ear tip sizes so you can get the optimal seal with maximum comfort

ULTRA-LONG 34 HOURS OF BATTERY LIFE AND IPX5 CERTIFIED | Boasting a staggering 12-hour per charge with total playtime of up to 34 hours; a slight boost from our older model. To recharge, simply place the earbuds back into the charging case and they will charge automatically. The charging case is also rechargeable via the included USB-C charging cable. Outlier Air Sports V2 is certified IPX5 water-resistant so it can handle sweat, accidental splashes, or even rain without issues

IMPROVED CALL QUALITY AND SMART ASSISTANTS | Featuring built-in microphone with Qualcomm cVc 8.0 technology, each Outlier Air Sports V2 earbud picks up your voice over the background for improved call quality and clearer voice communication. For added convenience, just tap to activate Siri or Google Assistant for a quick call or get your music started

BLUETOOTH 5.0, APTX AND AAC, AND GRAPHENE-POWERED AUDIO EXCELLENCE | Outlier Air Sports V2 is equipped with the latest Bluetooth 5.0 and aptX / AAC, so you can be sure to experience uncompromised and uninterrupted wireless audio quality wherever you go. It is also fitted with the latest driver technology that produces detailed highs, well-balanced mids, and immersive bass with the 5.6 mm graphene-coated driver diaphragm
